

PLANNING FOR CHANGE WORKSHOP

M&GSQ is delighted to invite you to attend a free workshop in Rockhampton on November 13 2006.

Date: Monday 13 November

Time: Planning for Change Workshop 10.30 am-5.00pm

Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea will be provided

Venue: Room 4, Level 1, Walter Reid Cultural Centre, Cnr. East & Derby Streets, Rockhampton

The workshop on Planning for Change will be presented by Ian Plowman, Psychologist, Facilitator and Social Researcher and author of research report 'Why Some Towns thrive and others languish'. The workshop is in three parts:

1. Barriers to change
2. A Tool to achieve change
3. Application of tool to a critical planning question

PREPARATION FOR THE WORKSHOP

You are requested to identify a critical question for your organisation that participants agree is of high importance for your strategic direction and ongoing sustainability and to provide this question with your workshop registration. The workshop facilitator, Ian Plowman, will guide you through the process of applying the meeting model to addressing this question.

Example questions

How do we attract repeat visitors from the local community?

How do we maintain appropriate standards and procedures with lack of resources?

What do we do to attract and keep more volunteers?

How can we strengthen our relationship with local council?
